Doniphan Prospect-News: "The ed itor of the Ironton Herald, in his valedictory, sums up the cause of the suspension of his paper thusly: "There is not room for two papers in Iron county." The same could safely be said of cash, the real estate above described to numerous other counties in Missouri satisfy said note, interest and expenses, of where two or more papers are dragging out a very puny existence, and where there is not a respectable living for even one."

Cape Girardeau Democrat: "Thomas Beckwith, of Mississippi county, has 45 acres in potatoes that yields 135 bushels to the acre. He has instructed his hands to dig 80 bushels from each acre and leave the balance for persons who will dig them. This is in keeping with the family name. Quires Beckwith, of that coudty, would never sell corn for more than 50 cents a bushel, and in time of scarcity only in small quantities."

Col. Wm. Hyde, whose name is now prominently before the President for the St. Louis post-office, is, with all due deference to the other candidates, we think the right man for that position, and we hope to hear of his appointment very soon. Next to Griff. Prather, he is the choice down this way. We are not very favorable to Democrats who only become prominent and active when they see an opportunity to push themselves forward.
